"Runners" by Kahane has been acquired by the Students' Union and is now on display near the information counter. It was originally commissioned for Expo 67.

FACULTY SUFFERS LOSS IN ANNUAL HOCKEY MATCH

Saturday, February 1, "February Fools' Day," to quote HARVEY FORD, Assistant Professor of Business Administration and Commerce, was the date of the annual Business Administration and Commerce hockey game between professors and students. The students, exhibiting strength, skill, cunning, and superior numbers, triumphed 2 to 1 over the faculty, who tried hard. Said Mr. Ford, "We fought a valiant battle, only to lose two to one."

The fifteen male students and fourteen professors were assisted, respectively, by eleven female students and five secretaries. The girls scored a goal, despite valiant goal-tending by HELEN BILTEK, secretary to the Dean.

All proceeds from the game go to the Business Administration and Commerce Bursary Fund.

Business Administration and Commerce will take on Physical Education in a game of broomball on the quad, February 13, as part of the Varsity Guest Weekend activities and, said Mr. Ford, "as part of our continuing program in athletics."

PEOPLE

CHRISTIAN BAY, Professor and Head of Political Science, will serve on the advisory committee for a three-year national study of campus unrest to be undertaken by the American Council on Education. The study, to be supported by the National Institute of Mental Health in the United States, will attempt to gauge the frequency and extent of campus unrest, and to determine the relationship between individual differences among institutions, administrative practices, and college environments to campus unrest.

ROBERT SHAW, Associate Professor of Psychology at the University of Minnesota, participated in a Seminar-in-the-Round at the Centre for Advanced Study in Theoretical Psychology on February 3. The topic discussed was "Representation of Behavioral Structure."

VIOLA RECITAL

JANOS CSABA will present a viola recital in Convocation Hall on February 12 at 8:30 p.m. Mr. Csaba, who is well known as a teacher and chamber music artist, is presently studying at the Eastman School of Music in Rochester, New York. He was a member of the Montreal Symphony Orchestra for a number of years and has recorded for Pirouette Records. His recital here will include works by Dittersdorf, Beethoven, and Hindemith, and will be performed on a rare Maggini viola. He will be accompanied by SYLVIA HUNTER, pianist and Administrative Assistant in the Department of Music. Admission is free.

THREE STUDENTS NAMED TO SELECTIONS COMMITTEE

The Students' Council has named three members to the 11-member committee to select a new University President. At its meeting on Monday, January 27, the Council named BOB HART, chosen as a student-at-large, DON MAC KENZIE, Co-ordinator of Activities for the Students' Union; and RICHARD WATSON, President of the Graduate Students' Association. Provision was made for the replacement of Mr. Hart and Mr. Mackenzie, if desired by the new Students' Council to be elected in February.

Nine members have been named to the committee. Representatives have yet to be chosen by the Association of Academic Staff at The University of Alberta and the Alumni Association.

CZECH THEOLOGIAN TO SPEAK

The Czechoslovak theologian, JAN LOCHMAN, who will be on the campus February 7, 8, and 9, will give two addresses on February 7. At 2 p.m., he will speak to clergy and students at Metropolitan United Church on "The Lordship of Christ in a Secular Society." At 8 p.m., he will give a public lecture on "The Christian-Marxist Dialogue," in the Tory Lecture Hall, TL-B2.

STUDIO THEATRE

The Studio Theatre production from February 10 to 16 will be "What You Will," a re-vision of Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night." Performances will be at 8:30 p.m. from February 10 to 15, 7:30 on February 16. There will be matinees at 2 p.m. on February 15 and 16.
